POWER SQUADRON HOLDS FINAL EXAMS

Thirty-nine area residents completed their Basic Boating Course Training last Tuesday night at the Old Rochester Regional High School. A final exam and its results were followed by informal interviews and refreshments. Certificates were given to successful students and many applied for membership in the Mattapoisett Squadron. Armed with their newly acquired skills, the new graduates of the basic boating course will go out on the water next summer equipped for a season of safe boating. If this idea appeals to you a new class will form for the second offering of this successful course on January 9th, Tuesday, at Old Rochester Regional High School at 7:30 P.M.

The Mattapoisett Power Squadron welcomes new members and congratulates all those who have completed the Basic Boating Course. The aim of the Squadron will continue to be "Safe Boating thru Education".

David, age 15, is attending the Hotchkiss School in Lakeville, Connecticut, and resides with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Covill, at Holly Woods, Mattapoisett. The troop is sponsored by the Mattapoisett Lions Club.

The master of ceremonies was assistant scoutmaster, Gene E. Pursley, assisted by Scoutmaster James Sullivan and Committeemen Anton E. Brockelman and Ronald Marchino.

Chairman of the Board of Selectmen David N. Haley, speaking on behalf of the Town as well as a next door neighbor of David, commended him for his hard work and diligence in working to attain the rank of Eagle Scout. Haley noted that the Town was indebted to him and grateful to him for the selection and carrying out of his Eagle Scout Project. This involved enrolling the Town into Operation Identification, he said, and resulted in all Town-owned office equipment, tools, etc. being engraved with the Town name in order to discourage theft of it, and to facilitate identification and return of stolen property if it was in fact stolen and recovered.

The Eagle was presented to David by his father, and then David presented his mother with the Eagle Mother's recognition pin.

tory of man has been so full of discovery. No other adventure has been shared by so many. A man in his forties will remember very well the time when every rare plane that appeared in the sky was "Lindy". That man, who first flew the Atlantic ocean alone, was witness to the first flight to the moon. A dream that has captured the imagination of men since the dawn of history has been realized and we were there. A feat of engineering, staggeringly complex, has been accomplished and our country did it. Who will forget that endless second when Neil Armstrong stretched his leg down to plant the first footprint on the moon? We were there as if we were part of the crew. In the greatest adventure of man to date, we have shared the thrill, the satisfaction and the glow of victory.

Those who say that the fortune spent on this project would have been better spent on the war on poverty are blind to the actual results. Far better that we spent that treasure in the building of a technology that can have a positive, dynamic effect on the living standard of men. Rather than the dole, man needs the goal. It is a food of the spirit. Not for a mo-

O.R.R. Cheerleaders

A football game, soccer field or basketball court would be devoid of color and spectacle if cheerleaders would suddenly cease to exist. Cheerleaders provide an atmosphere that would be hard to do without. By sparking enthusiasm and spirit, the Old Rochester cheerleaders show pride in their teams - win or lose.

Representing the red and white Bulldogs are: Seniors, Captain Suzanne Morse, Erica Nelson, Gayle Silveira, Karen Andrews, Paula Roberts; Juniors Sheryl Swift, Charlene Walker, Heather Thuestad; Sophomores Diane Setteducati, with substitutes Heidi Brockleman and Laurie Fielding.

After a busy season cheering for football and soccer, the cheerleaders will be even more involved with winter sports. Along with cheering for the basketball

GIFTS FOR TAUNTON STATE HOSPITAL

This is the Season of Peace on Earth Good Will Toward Men. Let us not forget, when we are making out our Christmas lists, our Greater New Bedford area neighbors who are hospitalized at Taunton State Hospital. Although developments in mental health mean more and more that people are hospitalized for a shorter period of time, there still is a great segment of our patients who are quite elderly, have been here for years and have no families or friends to visit or think of them at Christmas.

You can help remember these people by dropping a small gift (wrapped or unwrapped) into the box marked "TAUNTON"
